

Eclipse™ R.O.

Advanced water quality monitoring — right at the tap

DRINKING
WATER

ECLIPSE™

The Eclipse™ reverse osmosis drinking water system is a top of the line RO system that provides your family with the cleanest, healthiest water possible. Multiple filters transform ordinary household water into pristine water by reducing unwanted and harmful contaminants.* System performance is verified with a touch monitor on the system's faucet base. Installation and filter changes are simple, plus no electricity is needed for operation!

System Features:

- Water Quality Monitor
- Service-friendly cartridge modules

System Benefits:

- Cost effective option to bottled water
- Healthy, sparkling clear drinking water
- Better tasting soups, sauces and meals when prepared with R.O. water
- Full flavor coffee, tea and juice
- Convenient, clean water ready at the tap
- Environmentally sound water treatment
- Crystal clear ice cubes

Effectively Reduces Contaminants in Drinking Water:

- Nitrates
- Lead
- Arsenic (pentavalent)
- Cyst (cryptosporidium)
- Fluoride
- Radium 226/228

water-right.com

See performance data sheet for contaminant reduction specifics.*

Eclipse™ R.O. Drinking Water System

Water Quality Monitor

Monitor your water quality with ease. The built-in monitor is a standard yet premium feature of the ECLIPSE™ water dispenser. Just a push of the button assures you and your family that you are getting safe and pristine drinking water.

Superior Features

- TDS Faucet Monitor checks the R.O.'s operation and quality of your drinking water
- Disposable and easy to change filters are clean and sanitary — no messy cartridges
- High flowing Thin Film Composite (TFC) membrane
- Dual sediment/carbon block pre-filter — longer life with superior filtration
- Tested and certified against NSF/ANSI Standard 58 for the reduction of the claims specified*
- Tested and certified for cyst reduction, including cryptosporidium
- Tested and certified for health related claims*

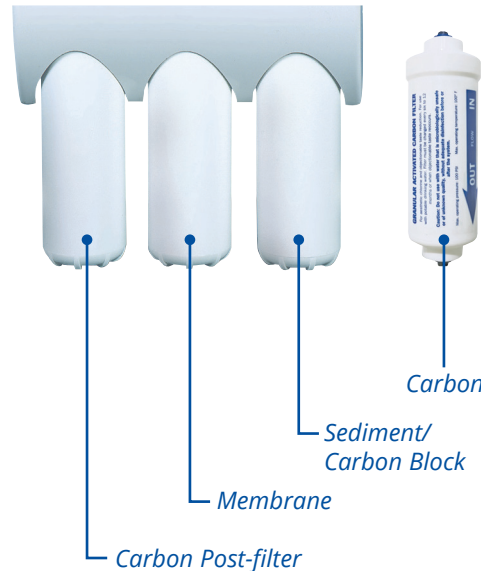

Convenient, Pristine Drinking Water

The Eclipse™ reverse osmosis drinking water system is our top of the line system that offers a convenient, affordable, and environmentally friendly choice vs. bottled water. Designed with the homeowner in mind, Eclipse features a simple cartridge filter change without the mess. The Eclipse R.O. filters water at the molecular level to reduce contaminants*, remove odors and improve the appearance and taste of your tap water. Enjoy the pure taste of bottled water, right at the tap.

NSF International Tested and Certified

*The Eclipse™ WRO-35 R.O. Drinking Water System is tested and certified by NSF International against NSF/ANSI Standard 58 for the reduction of:

- lead
- arsenic (pentavalent)
- copper
- nitrates
- nitrites
- cyst (cryptosporidium)
- chromium (hexavalent)
- chromium (trivalent)
- selenium
- cadmium
- fluoride
- TDS
- radium 226/228
- barium

Your local water treatment professional:

* See the Performance Data Sheet for specific percentages of contaminant reduction.